School's back
Life seems to go from zero to 100 during the first few weeks of school. These parents have pooled their years of experience to bring you some suggestions to make the rest of the year run more smoothly. Good luck! Back to school checklist:

Learning to read
Learning to read is hard work and can be frustrating at times for parents and their kids. Watch the video to hear what these public school teachers have to say to help, with quick tips on how to make it easier. Learning to read:

Jargon busters
Wanting to start the school year with clarity and wondering about the meaning of some of the school terminology? Here's a list of common abbreviations or terms to make the world inside the school gates seem a little more familiar. School jargon buster:

From the Principal’s Desk......
Great to see all classes are settling into their daily routines and all programs are quickly up and running.

Just a quick reminder to Years 3-6, that this Wednesday is our first swimming carnival. Please ensure all permission forms have been returned by Tuesday. It is extremely important that parents complete the section on your child's swimming capability.
